Wolfgang Osthoff and other scholars have suggested that Bach intended the completed Mass in B minor for performance at No. 15: Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum dedication of the new Hofkirche in Dresden, which was begun in and was nearing completion by the late s. Much of the Mass gave new form to vocal music that Bach had composed throughout his career, dating back in the case of the "Crucifixus" to but extensively revised.

The Mass was never performed in its entirety during Bach's lifetime; the first Update Required To play the media you will need to either update your browser to a recent version or update your Flash plugin. Not to be available individually, but only as part of the box set release 8.
