The numbers who beset him completely hid Hazelton from view. They don't want to burden themselves with a lot of boys when every effort must be made to get the stolen property out of this section of the country before they are discovered. Sam had sufficient sense to know that all his pleadings for mercy would be in vain, and he held his peace until Phil returned with a long coil of rope which had been used as a boat's painter.

He did not finish the sentence, for at that moment Long Jim stepped directly in. He pulled his boat up high out of the water, and, in order to conceal her, heaped such a pile of dry grass on top of her that it must have attracted the attention of any one passing, more especially those who were familiar with the creek. He'll turn up at the museum to-night all right, with a big yarn to tell about his supposed adventures.

This appeared in his mind as the most brilliant scheme he had ever conceived, and at once started in pursuit, as did several others, and Dan cried, as he helped carry the burden:.
