It would be wrong of me to tell too much of the story, but there were moments in this book when I was angry with her, wanted to hug her, and one significant point when I wished I was standing behind her to cheer her on. Marianne becomes obsessed with a online site kind of like Meeting Lydia to see if she can find her childhood crush Lydia. It is in talking to him and facing her past that she and her husband may still have a Meeting Lydia . DoesMarianneandLydiameetup? It will appeal to fans of adult fiction and those interested in the dynamics and psychology of relationships. My first impression of this book was it looks really good quality, fairly large print and nice thick paper - each time i turned a page i had to double check i'd only turned the one as it felt like two! Meeting Lydia MacDonald knows her psychology and this is apparent in the text which pulls off that difficult balancing act of being both a work of popular fiction but Meeting Lydia stimulating.

Philosophicalthoughtsaren'tquitemybagbuttheyrepresentedMarianne's Lydia is an incredibly refreshing read.
