We live as we should after all be bound to live if it were true that man is on the Steiner did a series of lectures on this topic which are quite remarkable if you can get hold of. Whether we possess a vivid sense of sight, a well-developed sense of hearing, and so forth, may depend upon whether our ancestors have acquired such faculties and have passed them on to us by heredity. A very great deal could be said in confirmation of this but we will confine ourselves to one aspect.
