The German, with his uniform and his pageantry and his threats and plans, does not impress these people at all. I still have those well written course texts.

Some desperately tragic stories written with such sublime skill. To see what In his subsequent novels, Steinbeck found a more authentic voice by drawing upon direct memories of his life in California. He died in New York of a heart attack and his ashes are interred in Salinas. Present day keyboard warriors should read this collection and take note.
