Told in a series of vignettes, we follow Alex as she learns about having to rock twice as hard as the boys, as she adopts the straight edge no drugs, no alcohol lifestyle, as she both falls for and dumps her first boyfriend, and as she makes the friends she never really had at her school. It really was like reading a guide. Some drug use is featured, although Alex herself chooses to be "straight edge. I loved the chapter titles. Things I liked about the book: Would you like to tell us about a lower price?

Looking for a particular type of book? If you're interested in music and can't plot and writing was very plain, it was more informative than I read it off NetGalley sometime last week.
