I wrote this before Michelle Obama launched her lunch-room reform campaign. As a writer, Lisa won the Brookie and D. In doing that, she was able to find people who could look past their initial reaction to her and see her for what she truly is. Then there is a knock on Treasure's door, it takes her a while to see if she even wants to open it. Andrea and everyone else. The 18th sounds great. It's no accident that it took her 44 interviews to land a job and was finally hired by a truly desperate principal. Oct 13, Lexierated it it was amazing Shelves: I hope you love it. Treasure is a first-grade teacher who cares about her students and wants the best for them.
