I am much less active then I once. This is a tough question. The pirate concedes that he is stealing the books, so how is indignation going to solve anything? Thereisnojustification. I prefer hard copy of books but I have scanned out-of-print ones. Andrew Carnegie of course, the self-made entrepreneur who founded what would become US steel, and to set up libraries across the United States, a traitor to his class. Today, we face a similar problem with our concept of intellectual property.
