When I was little, someone told me If I looked at the mirror everyday before bed I would go to heaven when I die. Now everything is clear:

This is what comes to my mind most of the time. In my sleep, I walked back to where

It was cool to see all the authentic food and the different markets. And they would lower them down into the pit. Lights overhead broken apart from one at the far end.

Who is to tell you. A girl put on a black dress and looks in the mirror. The night wears my shoes and stands on a mountaintop.
