Blind Faith Summary Excerpt Book 2: Only in this way, our brains will be able to become more receptive to Spirit, establishing a permanent connection between the individual and Spirit.

It became obvious to me that we can do now with the inner world of the psyche what we could not do before. The purpose of the process is to free our selves from the erroneous interpretations of Reality we have made since humankind first stood on the planet. An Idea is a perfect model to start a creative process.

These forms will still be abstract and not yet materialized. I had understood that a new, more holistic view of history will emerge this way because the different disciplines are expressions of the race yearning to become .
