Our living condition, on the other hand, relates to growing in righteousness progressively as our mind is renewed, causing our behavior and emotions to be transformed by the Holy Spirit in us. A spiritual family where we have a sense of being connected and belonging to other believers is our place of... But the God that has caused dust to be born again to a living hope also has much to say. All believers have received the fullness of grace in their spirit legal position and yet they can still live far below it in their daily experience living condition. Every Christian ought to read it slowly and prayerfully. Yet our God has wisdom and strength for everyone who wants to press in to Him. For certain men have crept in unnoticed. The power by which one cooperates with grace is grace. We must see grace through the lens of this quality of love.
