Since we know the stock market crash is only weeks away and will affect everyone in the book, the suspense was high from beginning to end. There's a lot to like in this book.

In the midst of it all, though, he fanned the flames of conscience, hope, faith, love.

This was a very good story, a little challenging moving from connected stories that eventually fit. Jan 09, Hope rated it it was amazing Shelves: The characters were interesting, and Birch's family was very engaging.

There were also some relationship tensions and occasional physical danger. In New York, he finds sanctuary with some rumrunners, run by Boss Quinn. Open Preview See a Problem?
