That's the first half of the test of whether our love for people is real. And the main point is the familiar one that loving your fellow believers is the test of whether you really love God or not. That is the first unit in this text, 4: Despise Not Little Ones. The radio authority said, "Don't reprimand him and insist on obedience. And they will comfort you, and love you in a very personal way the world does not know, and they will manifest Jesus to you, and make you their home. To feel pleasure in. Love for Jesus is entirely deserved. God wants our churches to exercise prophecy so that we will be upbuilt as we experience together the friendship of God through his Spirit. In other words, religious piety that does not produce practical deeds of love is just empty talk—or worse than .
