Nineveh has cost Me no end of effort, and it means the world to Me. Your concern was dictated by self-interest, not by genuine love.

He himself is going to disappear from the story as soon as the message is delivered. He did not experience this emotion either in his own deliverance from certain death or from the mass turning of the people of Nineveh. The three together are too much for . God rebuked Jonah, not through a storm in this instance, but by exposing these. He had answered the question of v.
