Let us be the sledge-hammer in this, or I shall be beset by hundreds of the same crew when I come out with a long story. Let the story of A Christmas Carol and its symbolic messages of love, change, and redemption touch your life this Christmas season.

The central character of A Christmas Carol is Ebenezer Scrooge, a miserly Londoner. Dickens advocated a humanitarian focus of the holiday, [] which influenced several aspects of Christmas that are still celebrated in Western culture, such as family gatherings, seasonal food and drink, dancing, games and a festive generosity of spirit.
