The value of giving each other the opportunity to process your experiences differently. The Road To You is the most captivating book I have ever read. I just know I enjoyed it. The dating in the end and having a HEA was believable. I wish more audible books did. Oh my folks, this is a sweet, fast-paced gem of a story. I felt like the main characters had zero chemistry or build up to getting together, there's a hint of drama and angst that sprouts now and then, but for all intents and purposes, this was a romantic comedy title that had female main characters who toed the line between not being able to stand being around one another and Read the full review on Bookaholics Not-So-Anonymous. I absolutely loved Kane.
