He realized that news people DO tend to only tell the bad stuff happening. At the beginning of the book the author Who is an NBC special correspondent to the Middle East sets out on a mission, to walk Israel's coast from North Tyre's Ladder to South The Gaza border saying that he wants to show the many other sides to Israel as its not fair that Israel is only known in world media for its conflicts with the Palestinians. I have been to Israel several times and enjoyed this book. This book helped flesh out and put what he had to say in perspective. A Personal Search for the Soul of a Nation. I'm glad I read this book and only wish it had been available before I went to Israel. I have been to Israel several times and enjoyed this book.
