Lists with This Book. Although I did have the villain pegged early on.

But then some of those passages also really made me think. I will not criticize. I found myself saying Beautiful Lies often, "yes, I've thought that same thing and never put Beautiful Lies into words" or "yes, I KNOW how she feels. There were so many moments where I'd just shut my eyes and let the emotions and tragedy sink into me. I felt empathy for her, hoped, but doubted, her sister was okay, and rooted for a positive resolution. Retrieved 1 April I loved the characters.
