But dance is not only reserved for people. The diversity of what we offer enables the public the opportunity to discover themselves and the society on several levels. Painting the walls and columns white, melts the building back into a . When he became a father, he went in search of stimulating books and play material. A selection of optical tricks, games, toys and paintings open a fascinating world of artistic imagination. The themes of the mobile studios are very diverse and interdisciplinary, and are usually developed in collaboration with the guest organiser. The studios, a combination library, workshop and exhibition in a refined design, have been invited as guests to many events. The tension created with the tactile multiplex wooden studios that is so distinct in daily life games, education, clothing of children will also be taken into consideration.
