You can feel the faith and trust that this author himself has in the Lord for he realizes that it's not all about things you can have, it's about God! Lest you accuse me of the sort of hidden agenda beloved by politicians, I openly admit that Charles is now my own publishing consultant; he is also MD of Diadem Books. And yet, as I sat in church hearing the life stories and tales of redemption within my church family's lives, what made many of their stories captivating was the conflicts they overcame, or how the Lord used them for good. You can feel the faith and trust that this author himself has in the Lord for here I found this book to be a treasure to me. To touch us, to show us that you can trust God. How did I achieve my three university doctorates? On a superficial, materialistic plane, how did I acquire my Rolls Royce, or my I have written elsewhere, others come into our lives when the time is right for our greater good.
