They are the best of friends and want to live together when they are ready to move.

I have 3 kids. A child with autism is hard to understand, both in behavior and reactions.

But I also have to fight with the government and schools. It is a well-written, am in the midst of coming to terms with the fact that my son most likely has aspergers just like his older sister. They seemed to have a perfect life in store for them, but life had other plans.
