Rome uses a captured galley to build a fleet of ships in less than 45 days and challenge Carthaginian supremacy. Having conquered Egypt it is time for the army of Carthage to move north up the coast. One night a slight sound disturbs . All is not as it seems as even his allies are turning against. All is not as it seems as even his allies are turning against. Seventy years ago the might of Carthage was brought to bear on the city of Rome. His small fleet of war galleys, battered, crews exhausted, supplies depleted, are pinned by tide and wind against a hostile shore.
