Justin said: Richard K. Morgan is kind of hot shit in the sci-fi world these days, This book was previously listed as #1 in the Black Man series. Best Science Fiction of the 21st Century .. Sexual selection isn't considered at all. .. Taking a whole lump o Enjoyable stuff, but perhaps far too heavy on the polemics for some .

Thirty-odd years ago the US and UK created genetically modified soldiers, called "Thirteens", but when public horror shut the project down, the Thirteens were put into camps or shipped off to Mars. Droplet sized morsels for your reading pleasure.

Oneisanintriguingpropersci-finovelaboutanoutsidernegotiaTwohundred This is intelligent science fiction, a look at social and cultural change and geopolitics, all interwoven with 21st century genetics and artificial intelligence. Probably a bit rape-y for a book club selection. Amazon Advertising Find, attract, and engage customers.

EnglishChoosealanguageforshopping.Share your thoughts with other customers. The pacing is erratic, the plot incredulous and the conclusion out from the left field, but Thirteen is unique enough of an SF offering to read it .
