One of the major reactions I came away with is how well she can write in no matter what format--a point quite obvious from her incisive opinions. Hobby Lobby case concerning the religious freedom of a family-owned or closely-held company under Obama's Affordable Care Act, she questions how the Court's ruling that closely-held companies have religious freedom could affect attitudes toward the employment of women if a company owner's religion believes women shouldn't work. [TopReviewsMostrecentTopReviews.FrenchAlbumsChart\[19\]](#). As a matter of genuine regard for each other, Ginsburg relates that, before playing in the SCOTUS sandbox, they always begin with handshakes no gropes allowed - each Justice with the .
