She wrote her first novel at age 12, a crime drama set in her hometown of Detroit, MI and is a self-admitted graphomaniac who compulsively writes daily. Tasked by her ex-lover Finn with finding a rare violin, the case explodes. Jackson Brodie, former police detective, is her MC, but at times he's just a sort of layabout, letting things happen TO him; but still, he's likeable.

But Dr Hunter is so much more than an employer to Reggie who also adores the baby
Book Club Girl book clubs. To cut a long story short, but not give too much away, doing her rounds in the centre she spots a druggie Kelly Cross dragging a screaming child behind .
Other than that, borrowing a plot from real life should be limited to grandad's
Children's Books books for young readers. I'd recommend this book to anyone who doesn't really have anything better to read, but don't go out of your way to read it.
